1. WAP to find the largest element of an array.

2. WAP to sort array elements in ascending order

3. WAP to read 10 numbers from keyboard to store these num into array and then calculate sum of these num using function

4. WAP reads two 2-D arrays,adds the corresponding elements and displays the result on the screen.

5. WAP to store the name of week days and then print all.

6. WAP to swap the number using a pointer(call by value and call by reference).